

Dynamic Board Members for the Ralph Thornton Community Centre

The Ralph Thornton Community Centre (RTCC) is a dynamic community centre dedicated to community development in South Riverdale. We collaborate with others to create a healthy, inclusive and vibrant community. We provide space and support for diverse community groups and we offer a variety of programs to support residents.

The People We Need

We are committed to equity, diversity and accessibility in our search for new board members. The Centre is in a period of growth and exciting transition. We are now looking for new board members who are representative of the community and who also bring fresh ideas and skills to our consensual board of directors. We are looking especially for people with skills and experience in the following areas:

- Human Resources, e.g. policy development, labour relations, staff and volunteer development, etc.
- Marketing, e.g. branding, publicity, marketing, strategic partnerships, etc.
- Fundraising, e.g. special events, grant writing, corporate / business sponsorships, donations, direct mail, etc.

Board Member Commitment

Board members need to:

- commit to at least one two-year term
- join a committee or working group and to diligently take on work assigned to the board or committee.

Nominating Process

1. Contact Shawn Conway, Executive Director, by June 12th and let us know if you would like to be considered for our new board.
2. Send Shawn your resume and a statement or letter explaining why you are interested in becoming a board member.
3. A board member will contact you by phone and arrange an interview.
4. Once nominated, attend the Annual General Meeting on June 27th, 5:30 p.m.
