	than $1,500 net income, due to increased costs for casual staffing related to casual staffing for special event support, sick relief, double staffing maintenance to accommodate shift changes and special projects, and to maintain a minimum of two people in the building. Additionally, solid waste costs were moved from property taxes to utilities but not fully addressed.  • While income exceeded budget expectations, expenses continue to exceed budget projections.
	MOTION: THAT the Board receive the Q$ 2016 financial report.	M: Graham S: Alan CARRIED
• 2017 Operating Budget	Graham highlighted the Committees report and recommendations he noted that while the budget relies on several conservative estimates  • The Mentor program is still not self-sufficient, resulting in a $3,600 projected deficit;  • A significant deficit in the core budget remains  • Costs have been trimmed as much as possible to reduce and mitigate expenses  • Several 2016 forecasting errors have been corrected in the 2017 Budget, but structural problems remain.  • In June, the Board may have to consider closing the Centre for on several or all weekends and/or increasing rental fees by 20% effective May 1st to make up for some of the expected rental revenue losses due to the elevator repair schedule.
	MOTION: THAT the Board approve the Ralph Thornton Community Centre's 2017 operating budget	M: Graham S: Janet CARRIED
Rental Fees	Graham outlined the Committee's recommendation regarding increasing rental fees by 20% as one strategy to mitigate projected deficits.

	Item	Discussion	Decision	Action / By
		<ul> <li>The increased fees are expected to raise approx. $3,200 between May and December 2017, and approx. $5,000 more in 2018.</li> <li>It was confirmed that space users how had booked rental space prior to April 30th, 2017 for events that will occur later in the year, would not be asked to pay the increased fee.</li> <li>It was also confirmed that there was no intention to change the space use category criteria and what appeared as "recommendations" in the chart attached to the revised proposed fee schedule should be treated as information and not a component of the revisions being proposed.</li> <li>It was noted that the basement computer lab had been omitted from the fee schedule. It was recommended that this space be added to the schedule at a fee rate equal to two sections of the auditorium</li> <li>MOTIONS:         <ul> <li>THAT the Board approve an increase in the room rental fee rate by 20%, as outlined in the attached revised fee schedule</li> <li>THAT the rental rate for the basement Computer Lab be established at a level equivalent to two sections of the auditorium and included in the revised fee schedule</li> </ul> </li> <li>The revised schedule (Appendix 3 - Space Booking Policy &amp; Procedures Policy), as approved, is appended to these</li> </ul>	M: Graham S: Janet CARRIED  M: Michèle S: Jeff CARRIED
