

RTCC Community Volunteer Awards

Overview

The RTCC Community Volunteer Awards are intended to recognize community members for outstanding contribution to the community and to the Ralph Thornton Community Centre. There are three categories for the RTCC Community Volunteer Awards.

Award Categories

Contribution to RTCC Governance – To recognize individuals who have contributed to the governance of the Ralph Thornton Community Centre.

Criteria for the RTCC Governance Award include:

- Past participation on the RTCC Board of Management, Board Committee, or Working Group.
- Demonstrated commitment and outstanding contribution to the governance of the centre above and beyond normal duties.
- Length of service with the RTCC.
- Demonstrated active promotion and support of the RTCC values and the mission of the organization.

Partnership with RTCC – To recognize individuals or organizations who have fostered collaboration with the Ralph Thornton Community Centre to advance the mission and values of the Centre.

Criteria for the Partnership with RTCC Award include:

- Current or past individual or organization that has collaborated with the RTCC to jointly advance initiatives.
- Scope and length of the collaboration with RTCC, including extent of shared resources.
- Demonstrated support for collaboration and strengthening relationships with RTCC and other stakeholders.
- Outstanding contribution to advancing the mission and values of RTCC.

Contributions to Community Betterment – To recognize individuals who have provided outstanding commitment and contributions to improving community wellbeing within the RTCC catchment area.

Criteria for the Community Betterment Award include:

- Length and nature of involvement in community activities that promote community interests and wellbeing.
- Demonstrated active promotion and support of the RTCC values and the mission of the organization.
